Release of Liability

I fully understand that as part of my volunteer assignment at EHS I will come in contact with animals, either by directly handling them or through assisting in their care and adoption. Further, I understand that working with animals carries a risk of injury and that it is possible that I may be bitten, scratched and/or otherwise injured. My signature to this volunteer liability release attests to my intent to hold harmless and release from all liability the Escondido Humane Society, its agents and assigns, from all acts which are related to the normal performance of required and implied duties.

Mission Statement

The mission of the Escondido Humane Society is to promote responsible pet ownership by teaching compassion, respect and caring treatment for all living creatures. The Escondido Humane Society advocates the elimination of animal abuse, pet overpopulation and homelessness among companion animals and finds new homes for surrendered, stray and abandoned animals.

About the Organization

The Escondido Humane Society is a California non-profit 501(c)(3) Public Benefit Corporation incorporated under the laws of the state of California. It is not a government department, branch of any government bureau, a subdivision or any part of any other charitable organization. The Escondido Humane Society functions as an independent charitable organization funded solely by fundraising events, donations and fees for services provided to the public. The Board of Directors serve as volunteers and receive no financial compensation for their time and effort.
